

Better Things With Reasonable Prices

They are very innocent. They want to sell their crops to the others. Small and temporary stalls built aside the road with better appearance to the travellers on the road. That is why they come out from their village toward the city areas. There are lot of fruits, vegetables, varies kinds of greens available on the stalls. Some fruits are seasonable.

Not only rice they have lot of things.
They always ready to supply you things that
you request,

